

PROGRESSIVE IN MEXICO FORCED TO PAY "TRIBUTE" TO LEADERS

TAFT SEES TROUBLE FOR U. S. IN MEXICO

will result in the establishment of a provisional Government. The only uncertainty in the situation is Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

For a time Carranza might be able to make trouble, but the Washington Government will not let Carranza. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Written by Brazilian. The Pan-American note was written by Ambassador da Gama of Brazil. It was transmitted to Mexico in Spanish. Copies were sent to Carranza, Villa, Zapata, and the other leaders of the revolution. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Information was received here today that Gen. Carranza has summarily dismissed from office the Mayor of Vera Cruz for permitting the document to be distributed in that city. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Reception for Cordoba. Preparations are being made by State Department officials to receive Mr. Cordoba, Brazilian Minister, on his arrival in Washington. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Assistant Secretary of War Breckinridge today received the following statement relative to conditions on the Texas border: Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

The Brazilian Minister will arrive at New Orleans tomorrow on the cruiser Sacramento and will come direct to Washington, where he will confer with State Department officials. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Accordingly, I appealed to the Judge in the case of the following: Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

These make the third order that has gone out for movement of troops to the border in the last week. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

BLAMES BAD AMERICANS

Carranza Says America Is Flocking to Him to Defend Nation. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

VALVERDE, Tex., Aug. 14.—Advices from Vera Cruz today are that the supplies sent there on the transport Bufo several months ago left for Mexico city today. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Carranza is continuing on troubles at Vera Cruz and along the border, in his official dispatches declared that unscrupulous Americans, financially interested in Mexico, and who clamor for intervention, are the cause of the trouble. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Mr. Gonzalez has advised Carranza that he will uphold the policies of the First Chief and go to war against the United States and South and Central America in case of either armed or political intervention. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Carranza says in despatches that as a result of the Pan-American Congress whole armies are flocking to him to defend Mexico from attacks by foreign nations. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

WANT PEACE, EVEN WITH WAR

Troops of Six Mexican States Thred of Fighting. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

El Paso, Aug. 14.—Troops throughout the States of Durango, Sinaloa, Oaxaca, Chiapas, Tepic and Guerrero, Mexico, have declared against all fighting factions in Mexico and have entered into a compact to have peace, if they have to whip all other factions to get it. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

It is this peace movement that Gen. Natera is said to have joined at Durango and instead of marching against Villa Natera is now said merely to have refused to march against Obregon's force in Villa's behalf. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Continued from First Page.

which has twisted the visage of our neighbor into a hideous sight. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

For a time Carranza might be able to make trouble, but the Washington Government will not let Carranza. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

There is a possibility of course that Carranza, once convinced that Europe as well as Latin America are in sympathy with the present endeavor to restore peace in Mexico, may decide to go into the peace convention as a means of saving what he can out of the situation. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Written by Brazilian. The Pan-American note was written by Ambassador da Gama of Brazil. It was transmitted to Mexico in Spanish. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Information was received here today that Gen. Carranza has summarily dismissed from office the Mayor of Vera Cruz for permitting the document to be distributed in that city. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Reception for Cordoba. Preparations are being made by State Department officials to receive Mr. Cordoba, Brazilian Minister, on his arrival in Washington. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Assistant Secretary of War Breckinridge today received the following statement relative to conditions on the Texas border: Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

The Brazilian Minister will arrive at New Orleans tomorrow on the cruiser Sacramento and will come direct to Washington, where he will confer with State Department officials. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Accordingly, I appealed to the Judge in the case of the following: Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

These make the third order that has gone out for movement of troops to the border in the last week. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

BLAMES BAD AMERICANS. Carranza Says America Is Flocking to Him to Defend Nation. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

WANT PEACE, EVEN WITH WAR

Troops of Six Mexican States Thred of Fighting. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

El Paso, Aug. 14.—Troops throughout the States of Durango, Sinaloa, Oaxaca, Chiapas, Tepic and Guerrero, Mexico, have declared against all fighting factions in Mexico and have entered into a compact to have peace, if they have to whip all other factions to get it. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

It is this peace movement that Gen. Natera is said to have joined at Durango and instead of marching against Villa Natera is now said merely to have refused to march against Obregon's force in Villa's behalf. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Mr. Gonzalez has advised Carranza that he will uphold the policies of the First Chief and go to war against the United States and South and Central America in case of either armed or political intervention. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Carranza says in despatches that as a result of the Pan-American Congress whole armies are flocking to him to defend Mexico from attacks by foreign nations. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

WANT PEACE, EVEN WITH WAR

Troops of Six Mexican States Thred of Fighting. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

El Paso, Aug. 14.—Troops throughout the States of Durango, Sinaloa, Oaxaca, Chiapas, Tepic and Guerrero, Mexico, have declared against all fighting factions in Mexico and have entered into a compact to have peace, if they have to whip all other factions to get it. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

It is this peace movement that Gen. Natera is said to have joined at Durango and instead of marching against Villa Natera is now said merely to have refused to march against Obregon's force in Villa's behalf. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

GENERAL VILLA

GENERAL V. CARRANZA

GENERAL OBREGON

EMILIANO ZAPATA

Why was not the Taft embargo re-established then?

HEAD GRAFT AGENCY LOCATED IN JUAREZ

Hipolito Villa Runs It and Banks Profits in U. S.

Upon several occasions the writer stood undiscovered as a chronicler of passing events in the actual presence of the high officials of the Villa Government. Through the courtesy of a mining man who represented interests in Mexico, financially able to bear the strain of thinly disguised graft and sufficiently powerful to assert American citizenship independent of support from the State Department, I was able to get first hand information of the invisible workings of the Villa crowd.

Here is the total of Mexican products, either confiscated by Villa or bearing the weight of heavy export taxes, which passed through the single portal of El Paso during the eighteen months ending May 1, 1915:

Products	Carloads	Products	Carloads
Alfalfa seed	4	Armenia	2
Beans	1,200	Cattle	2,500
Cattle	2,500	Hides	2,500
Cotton	1,200	Shoes and Hosiery	2,500
Gold	1,200	Wheat	2,500
Lumber	1,200	Wool	2,500
Potatoes	1,200	Coffee	2,500
Miscellaneous	1,200
Total	10,000

The foregoing table does not include heavy shipments of food and other products by water from Vera Cruz, Tampico and other ports. The Villa Government, under the auspices of the Carranza wing of the so-called Constitutionalists. Nor does it include the products exported from Mexico to the United States. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Profits. Surely we in the cafe had not heard right. This could not be the same Francisco. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Shipments of food products and live stock from Mexico to the United States over a single railroad on the west coast from February 23, 1913, to April 30, 1915, include:

Sugar and panocha	2,348,240 lbs.
Tomatoes	7,171,448 lbs.
Green vegetables	87,180 lbs.
Beans	72,900 lbs.
Cattle by rail	31,152 head
Cattle on hoof	112,967 head

The late Price Collier, premier hand of the Villa Government, once told the writer that in his opinion only those figures were properly permissible for serious usage which were admitted to be correct by those to whom they were assembled. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

EL PASO IS CHIEF DOORWAY OF LOOT. City Making Its Living by Catering to Juarez. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

El Paso is a smart, bustling little city of about 50,000 inhabitants, two-thirds Mexican and one-third American. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Figures Are Too Light. This list does not include the munitions of war that went to the Mexicans by water from Gulf ports. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Money Goes Into U. S. One of the automobiles daily conveys, under guard, such quantities of gold and silver as the Villa Government has secured by polite blackmail, gambling concessions and other cash gifts of the Villa Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Money Goes Into U. S. One of the automobiles daily conveys, under guard, such quantities of gold and silver as the Villa Government has secured by polite blackmail, gambling concessions and other cash gifts of the Villa Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Money Goes Into U. S. One of the automobiles daily conveys, under guard, such quantities of gold and silver as the Villa Government has secured by polite blackmail, gambling concessions and other cash gifts of the Villa Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

sure you are more anxious to assist our cause." Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

There are some confidences which the writer is pledged not to reveal in this narrative, but I am permitted to state the two propositions put before a representative of an American company. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Imagine a business man owning 100,000 bales of cotton, which represented an investment of $1,000,000. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

High Tax Assessed. There was one road out of the difficulty—to send the cotton to the United States. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

What concern was it to Villa that future Mexican labor was dependent upon the taxing of a reasonable export tax? Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Here is where the writer presents in its full meaning an ultimatum from the Constitutional Government in Mexico: Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Either, Mr. American Cotton Man, you become a resident of the United States, or you become a resident of Mexico, or you become a resident of the United States, or you become a resident of Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Hold High Place. Alberto Madero did not seem to be quite as easy as the surroundings, but I was informed by a member of this official family that he occupied an exceedingly important position in the Government. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Villa's operations were not present upon this or subsequent visits to the office of Hipolito Villa. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

But I must not forget the presence within of Hipolito's voice of Alexander Navarro, cashier in charge of the exporting from Mexico of prohibited goods. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Crowding the outer office behind a glass topped partition which crossed the center of the interior was a mixed company of people come to do business with the Villa crowd. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Outside upon horseback, balancing rifles upon the saddle pommel, passed the Villa crowd. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Nightstealing House Pass. Outside upon horseback, balancing rifles upon the saddle pommel, passed the Villa crowd. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Before I left the Banco Nacional with my friend the mining man I learned of the numerous other people who were suffering from the lack of employment. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

WAR SUFFERERS IN BAY RIDGE. The E. W. Bliss Company, whose big plant at the foot of Fifth street, Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Say Bliss Works, Running Day and Night, Are a Nuisance. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

DU PONT PLANT PLOT FAILS. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

WAR SUFFERERS IN BAY RIDGE. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Say Bliss Works, Running Day and Night, Are a Nuisance. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

VILLA'S HISTORY AS A BRUTAL OUTLAW

Long Hunted by Government for Murder and Robbery. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Francisco Villa was born in the District of San Juan del Rio, State of Durango. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Gets His Money. Gaxiola immediately took the determined collector in hand, and after an excited exchange of conversation in Spanish, led him to Navarro, the village of the American. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Gets His Money. Gaxiola immediately took the determined collector in hand, and after an excited exchange of conversation in Spanish, led him to Navarro, the village of the American. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Minas Nuevas, District of Hidalgo, by four hands, one of whom was identified as Villa. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Killed Two Cowboys.

In May, 1904, Villa was recognized as being in company with Jose Beltran and Rosendo Barrera, who were the Charcos ranch, near Villa Guzman, Durango, hunting for the owner, Gabino Amaya, who was in the Villa Guzman, where he held a large number of the habits tied two cowboys up and then went to the town house, striking a young woman upon the head with a mallet. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

In September, 1904, Villa, accompanied by seven individuals, it was charged, stole $3,000 in cash, jewelry and other valuables from the Canetto ranch, owned by the widow of Marcelo Guerra. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Two months later Villa led a band of five handbills against the Alferaz ranch in Durango. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

At the beginning of the Madero revolution, November 23, 1910, Villa offered his services to Francisco I. Madero, and got the rank of colonel. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

BRINGS U. S. SHIP RUMOR

Seacomet Hunted and Told of Sinking by Submarine. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

The American steamer Seacomet, which arrived yesterday at New York, Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

The American steamer Seacomet, which arrived yesterday at New York, Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

The American steamer Seacomet, which arrived yesterday at New York, Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Mistake Was Made Early in Departing From Attitude of Neutrality. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

PROGRESSIVES A JOKE

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.

Ex-President Taft said yesterday before starting on a Western trip which will take him to San Francisco that he does not see any way out for the United States in Mexico. Carranza, Villa, Zapata and the leaders of other minor factions already have signified an intention to fall in with the provisional Government.</